NOTES FOR BUYERS

1. On the fall of the Auctioneer's hammer, you will be required to go immediately to the Auctioneer's stand and sign the "Confirmation of Purchase" form (see example below).
2. The Purchaser will also be required to pay for the purchase in full at the time of signing the Confirmation of Purchase. The Purchaser must present appropriate payment or in the alternative must sign a cheque on the form as provided by the Auctioneer.
3. If the lot is purchased by an agent, then the agent will be required to sign the Confirmation of Purchase and either present his own cheque or sign one of the cheque forms presented by the Auctioneer.
4. Persons are only recognized as agents if they deposit an "Authorization of Agent" form – as shown on the next page – with the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association before the sale commences
